

Paraclete

Called to your side.

Own a color. Be unmissable.

The category is full of blue swooshes and bubble icons. Paraclete is the opposite: one unmissable color, a typographic personality, and the confidence to skip the mop iconography entirely. The wordmark is the brand — soaked in one teal you remember.

One color.

Lagoon teal is the ground, never an accent. White or ink are the only support.

One voice.

Plainspoken with attitude. We don't say "trusted partner." We say "by seven."

No clichés.

No bubbles, sparkles, spray bottles, gradients, or the word "shine."

What's a Paraclete?

Greek paraklētos — “the one called to your side.” It’s strange, specific, and it has a story. The origin gives it warmth without making it religious. People will ask what it means; that’s marketing you can’t buy.

PRONUNCIATION

PAIR-uh-cleet. We lean into the unfamiliar.

FULL NAME

Paraclete • Commercial Cleaning. Or just Paraclete when the wordmark carries it.

WE DROPPED

~~Solutions~~. Every B2B cleaner uses it. It was doing nothing for us.

The wordmark is the logo.

Bagel Fat One, set tight. No icon, no mascot — the chunky rounded letterforms do all the work. This is the primary lockup; use it wherever space allows.

The wordmark 'Paraclete' is rendered in a large, bold, teal-colored font with rounded letterforms. It is centered within a light orange rectangular background.

PRIMARY LOCKUP

Wordmark + descriptor stacked. Default for stationery and signage.

WORDMARK ONLY

Drop the descriptor when context is clear (web header, van).

NEVER RE-TYPE IT

Always use supplied artwork. Don't set "Paraclete" in another font.

Four ways to wear it.

PRIMARY • TEAL ON CREAM

KNOCKOUT • CREAM ON TEAL

REVERSED • CREAM ON DEEP

THE "P" MONOGRAM

For avatars, stickers, favicons, and anywhere the full wordmark won't fit. Always set in a teal circle with a cream P, or reversed. Keep it perfectly round.

Give it room. Don't mess with it.

CLEAR SPACE & MINIMUM SIZE

Keep clear space equal to the height of the "P" on all sides. Minimum width: 28 mm in print, 120 px on screen.

DON'T

No recoloring, re-setting, stretching, drop shadows, outlines, or placing on a busy photo without a teal or ink scrim.

Lagoon teal. That's the move.

Cream is the page. Deep teal is the body text. Marigold appears once a quarter, never on the same surface as the wordmark.

A display that's a sticker. A body that means business.

PAIRING RULE

Bagel Fat One only for headlines and the wordmark — never body copy. Space Grotesk for everything readable. Mono for data, labels, and contact details.

Plainspoken with attitude.

Confident, not cute. We don't hide behind corporate filler. We say exactly what we'll do and when we'll be there.

WE SAY

"We'll be at your door by seven."
"Rates locked twelve months."
"Best money we spend every month."
"Quote in 24h. Walkthrough in 3 days."

WE NEVER SAY

"Your trusted cleaning partner."
"Sparkling, shining results!"
"Solutions for all your needs."
"Synergy / leverage / world-class."

PRIMARY TAGLINE

Called to your side.

CONVERSATIONAL

Hi, we're Paraclete.

SECONDARY

The crew you keep.

Real spaces. Real hands. No stock.

Document the actual work — teal vans on side streets, late-shift crews, finished rooms at 4 AM. Never staged “person-with-spray-bottle” shots.

□ TEAL VAN ON A SIDE STREET, LATE SHIFT

□ CREW DETAIL — GLOVED HANDS, REAL SURFACE

□ FINISHED OFFICE AT 4 AM, LIGHTS LOW

DO

Available light, real locations, the van in frame, honest grain. Crop tight on hands and surfaces.

DON'T

Stock smiles, sparkle overlays, blue-and-white “clean” clichés, or faces filling the frame.

Soaked in teal, top to bottom.
